- When: November 16, 2011, Wednesday
5:45 PM – 6:15 PM Social time/Dinner
6:15 PM Start of Presentation
- Where: Kentucky Engineering Center
- Topic: ASCE’s Historic Landmark Program - Kentucky’s Landmarks
- Speaker: David Deitz, PhD, PE, Deputy Director of Structures, Palmer Engineering Chair, ASCE Kentucky Section, History & Heritage Committee

This year is the 75th year of ASCE in Kentucky and ASCE is KGEK’s parent organization.

ASCE’s History & Heritage Committee and its Historic Landmark program’s mission is to enhance knowledge and appreciation of the profession’s history. This presentation will introduce the program and provide a detailed discussion of Kentucky’s five designated landmarks and their specific contributions to the advancement of civil engineering.

David Deitz has 15 years’ experience in the design of bridges in Kentucky, as well as Ohio, West Virginia, Tennessee, Mississippi, and Missouri. He is a graduate of the University of Kentucky and the University of Cincinnati, and is a member of the Precast/ Prestressed Concrete Institute’s Committee on Bridges. David has served as the Chair of Kentucky Section’s History and Heritage Committee for the last 6 years. He resides in Lexington with his wife Amber and his three children.
